BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

1 The annual report on the character tone and influence of the newspapers in the State for the year 1911 is due in the Secty on the 5th January 1912 (Vide para 3 of Circular No 96662-70/G. Sec 135-09-47 of 3rd June 1910).

NOTES—First Sheet.

GPB—30,000—12-8-11

As complete and accurate information was not contained in the reports received last year a good deal of avoidable correspondence had to be carried on with the Distt Officers with the result that the correspondence on the subject could be closed only so late as in June 1911. With a view to avoid all this and obviate the necessity for unnecessary correspondence and facilitate early despatch of the consolidated report to the Residency, a Dft circular to the D.G. of Police and the Distt Magistrates is put up for approval.

Sir,

I have the honor to Submit herewith a Statement of news papers and Periodicals relating to this District for the Calendar Year 1911.

2. There was only one monthly Journal Concerning Sravanabelagola in Chamarayapatna Taluk of this District which was edited by Mr. Doorbala Munadara Sastry, and the journal is styled as "Sanathana Dharma Pathaka". Particulars Concerning the Editor, who is also the Proprietor, are given under column 9 of the Statement.

3. The Journal was discontinued since the month of April 1910, as the proprietor has been preparing to establish

Establish a printing press of his own at Sravanabelagola instead of getting it printed at Mandya in Mysore District as before..

4. The Journal was started for the Jain Sabha being intended only for Jains and not for other classes since it was purely a religious journal The character and tone of the paper was good, and the Contents not objectionable, and the influence was a healthy propagation of Jain literature

No 690 dated 10/1/12

Report.

District Superintendent of Police's reference No.684 dated 8th January 1912.

The exact date of declaration under column 5 of the papers noted in serial Nos.6, 7 and 9 are not available, as they had not been intimated to us from time to time; the parties themselves do not remember in all cases, and hence I cannot furnish them. They may be available at the office of the District Magistrate.

The date of declaration of the papers 3,4,7 under columns 9, 10, 11 and 12 are also not noted as the information cannot be had from them.

A copy of detailed report touching the antecedents, status &c. submitted in the year 1911, is also submitted for perusal together with a copy of report No.590 dated 5th December 1911, stating that in the absence of a specific and definite order of Government, we have no legal power to ask questions and the parties are not bound to answer them.

Unless some provision is made to furnish the information to the Police by the Proprietors and publishers, it is well nigh impossible to gather information and submit a detailed and accurate statement.

2. Again the return for the third quarter shows that the "Jyoti-Shastra Payonidhi" and the "Sadbhakti Chandrika" were being printed at the Sambradaya Prabodhini Press, Mysore. It is requested that the date from which they began to be printed at the Coronation Press, Mysore, may be reported.

3. It is observed that the monthly English journal entitled the "Indian Music Journal" is now converted into a bi-monthly but the date of the change has not been given.

4. According to the third quarterly return, Miss C.E. Parsons was the editor of the Canarese journal "Mahilasakhi", but the present return shows it as Mrs. Tomlinson. Kindly state from what date this change took place.

5. Also give the date from which the "Krishikalanidhi" ceased to be published.

6. The circulation of the monthly Canarese journal "Jaina Hitaishini" was 800 at the end of the year 1910; but it has fallen to 400 in 1911. Kindly assign reasons for the decrease.

SECTION Q.M.
FILE No. 135 of 11
ITEM No. 50.

Sir,

Adverting to your Nos. G 4596/933 (Q.M. 135-11-45) and G4694/952 (Q.M. 135-11-49) dated 1st and 6th instant respectively, and your D.O. No.G.4845 dated 15th instant I have the honor to state that from replies received from the Editors explaining the cause of fluctuation in the circulation of the magazines under reference it is seen that the increase in the case of the Maharaja's College Magazine was owing to the journal having been better appreciated, and Mahilasakhi to the change in the style and contents and better organization, Supantha to the fact of the Magazine being better known.

The Editor of Jaina-hitaishini is said to be absent from Mysore on account of some marriage and so the information for the decrease of the circulation of the journal is not aviailable.

Vivekodaya.

The correct date of declaration by the publisher is 25.1.1905. The date 6.9.1908 given in the last report relates to the date of declaration by the Printer and so not correct under this head. The date 25.1.05 may be kindly accepted as correct.

Karnataka Chandrike.

In the office copy of the latest report the date 6.9.08. has been entered as being the date of declaration made by the Printer and not 6.8.08. If 6.8.08 has been entered, the same may be kindly corrected into 6.9.08.

Millineal Light

The publisher declared on 29.1.08 that he would publish the Journal from the Kannikaparameswari Press Mysore and on 5.4.1909 he again declared that he would publish the Journal from the K.Narasimiah & Co., Press Mysore. Both these dates are therefore correct.

The Printer of Kannikaparameswari Press declared on 29.1.08 that he would print the Journal in his press from this date. Subsequently the place of printing was changed and K.Narasimiah & Co declared that they would print the journal in their press from 12.4.09 and so these dates are also correct.

As regards status etc, of the Editor of Mahilasakhi, the District Superintendent of Police Mysore reports (vide letter No. 1121/~~3906~~ dated 9.3.12 a copy of which is enclosed), that Mrs. Tomlinson is an English lady of good reputation.

As regards the information called for in your No. G4694 G.M.135-11-19 dated 6th instant I beg to state as follows:-

Mrs. Tomlinson says that she took up the Editorship of the Mahilasakhi in September 1911. The Editor of the Indian Music Journal reports that it was converted into a bi-monthly in July 1911. The date on which the journals Sadbhakti Chandrike and Jyotissastra Payomidhi changed their place of printing from Sampradaya Probodhini Press to the Coronation Press is 19th July 1911.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

I have the honor to state that Mrs. Tomlinson is the wife of Rev. Mr. W. Tomlinson of the Wesleyan Mission and resides at present at Gubbi and edits the monthly journal Mahilasakhi which is printed at the Wesleyan Mission Press Mysore. The proprietor of the press is Rev. SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith the return in the prescribed form of the Newspapers and Periodicals published in Mysore for the year ending 31st December 1911.

2. There were on the whole 39 publications during the year as against 43 during the previous year. Of these "Almysore" and "Sarvajanahitopakarini" ceased to be published in the middle of the year. Of the remaining 37, 10 were published in Bangalore 24 in Mysore, 1 in Kolar Gold Fields, 1 in Seringapatam and 1 in Davangere.

3. The marginally noted 7 periodicals shown in the last year's return ceased to be published during the year, while 4 new publications viz,"Veerasaivagrantha Prakasika","Sarada", "Indian music journal" and the "Vikata Vinodini" were started during the year. In respect of the last of which alone deals with public news and comments, the permission of Government to publish has

1. Kannada Law Report
2. Vysyakulavardhini
3. Visistadwaitha
4. Mysore Review
5. Savinudi
6. Bharata Varsha and
7. South Indian Templar.

has been obtained

4. Of the 37 periodicals printed and published throughout the year 2 viz the Agricultural Gazette and Police Gazette are official publications, 12 deal with literary subjects, 14 with moral and religious subjects and 9 with public news and comments.

5. The 9 publications dealing with public news and comments consist of 5 weeklies, 1 fortnightly and 3 monthlies. Of these, the Mysore Times and the Kolar Gold Fields News are published in English and Sadhwi both in English and Kanarese. The remaining 6 are all Kanarese publications. The tone and character of all these 9 publications are reported to be good and sober.

I have the honor to be,

sir,

The decrease is probably due to the fact that the Journal ceased publication early in 1941 and was revised only during the fourth quarter of that year the Editor being in consequence unable to secure during the short interval at his disposal the original number of 800 subscribers.

Report No: 892 from the Chief Inspector of Police, Bangalore City.

Received with the Superintendent of Police No. 1937 dated 20/21 March/12

V. B. Subbaiah was a respectable publisher and a press holder, from a long time; and ever since his death, his sons are managing the press, and they publish mostly Government Publications.

2. As for Sivarama Sastri, this gentleman is not in town: and it is not possible at present to know exactly what he is worth, and his antecedents.

3. The Editors are not able to furnish the date of declarations, and this information was not available in the City Magistrate's Court.

4. The increase in the circulation

in

in the Vokkaligara Patrika is mainly due to the fact that the paper contains more of useful agricultural information, and hence the paper getting more popular.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No: 65.604 dated 20th April 1912, I have the honor to state that it is ascertained that Sivaram Sastry, Editor of the Vikata Vinodini, is a resident of Nelamangala, where he owns a house. He is also the owner of a Jodi village, which yields him an annual income of about Rs: 400/-; and he has kept a private Sanskrit School in Bangalore, and earns about Rs: 30/- per month.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most Obedt: Servant,

District Magistrate.
Bangalore District.
